

Dig into your closet and bring any skating apparel you don't wear or doesn't fit to the Capital City Challenge Consignment Sale!

You set the price and for a 15% commission, we will display and sell your items during the event.

It can be a challenge to find someone in your own club who is the right fit for your items. We hope this sale will help everyone clean out their closets and find new skater-wear at the right price and fit!
