

Ryan's mission as a coach is to instill greatness and search for excellence every day in every skater. He seeks to maximize each skater's God-given abilities with whatever resources are available in this pursuit. He wants the skaters he works with to be champions in sport and in life.

Ryan began coaching during his successful competitive skating career where he spent 10 years on the U.S. Figure Skating Team and placed at the U.S. National Championships 7 times. He now holds a Professional Skaters Association Master Rating in both Freestyle and Moves in the Field. Besides those two specialties, Ryan also works extensively to choreograph programs and develop skating skills. He has had students medal at Junior Nationals as well as compete at the U.S. National Championships.

Ryan lives in Colorado Springs with his beautiful bride Tashiana and their three children, Zayin (6), Jassa (4), and Selah (2).
